Proudly presents:

Succeeding in a Recessionary Economy

Dr. Karl Burgher- P.E.

Special Assistant to the President for Strategic Planning, Indiana State University
Adjunct Professor, Missouri University of Science and Technology, and President of BurgherGines, LLC - Management Consultants

This seminar will discuss how to work in, and plan ahead for chaotic often transitional environments. Having a full "Career" now means that an employee is working in an environment, where work moves at speeds unheard of just a decade ago.

Learn tips on:

- What different skills must a Manager/Project Manager Have for the 21st century?
- How to remove the stress from a fast paced strategic work state.
- How do you prepare for the future, while having a very high workload in the present
- Ways one can hurt their Management Career & Credibility ...
- The New Work Rules ... For Full-Employment ...
- Investing in You ...
- Increased Competition (in everything) - And Increasing Conflict ...
- And finally, so you did get "Laid Off" - What do you do next to move forward productively ...

Networking at 6:00pm - Presentation at 6:30pm
Thursday, February 25, 2010

Doubletree Hotel St. Louis - across Westport
1973 Craigshire St. Louis, MO 63146

This seminar will help you achieve your goals. If you are a manager, project manager
- with or without direct reports, or are managed early in your career.

Then this seminar is for YOU!
